WRIT PETITION No.10583 of 2006

ORDER: (per the hon'ble Sri Justice L.Narasimha Reddy)

This Writ Petition is filed by 12 residents of Shanthi Nagar, North Lallaguda, Secunderabad, in public interest. They seek a direction to respondents 1 to 4 not to grant recognition to the School established by the 7th respondent.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Pleader for School Education.

The only contention advanced on behalf of the petitioners is that the School established by the 7th respondent is constructed in an area of 220 square yards and it is not at all congenial, for the purpose of running a School.

Even according to the petitioners, the locality is not highly developed and there seem to be constraints of space. In such an area, it would be difficult to expect establishment of Schools with scrolling grounds. Further, the social and economic status of the residents also would play an important role, in this regard. Therefore, we do not find any basis to accede to the request of the petitioners.

Hence, the Writ Petition is dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs.
